

I do not approve of BPL. This mode will only provide a an additional mode. Other modes have not provided full coverage of the entire U.S. population. Priority should be given to complete coverage by DSL or broadband over cable to the populace. In addition price regulation should commence. There is no evidence that BPL will have a lower price structure then the current offerings nor would it have coverage available today albeit not universal.